

Food You Can't Find Anywhere Else.

Unique Concept. Exceptional Opportunity.

Sizzle, Smoke & Salsa

Tin Star Restaurants opened its first of eleven locations near downtown Dallas in 1999 with the vision to deliver great value-priced food in an engaging atmosphere. Since then, their innovative food creations and addictive flavors have established Tin Star as a DFW staple.

Tin Star offers food profiles you just can't find anywhere else — taking a “made-from-scratch” approach, Tin Star has created a dining experience with a casual spirit, pure originality and hand-crafted quality. This unique experience makes an authentic connection with their growing number of Guests and keeps them returning and craving more.

Our Story

When the first Tin Star opened in 1999, the vision was to deliver great food, value priced, in an engaging casual atmosphere. The spirited, aggressive flavor profiles and uniquely different food at Tin Star keep Guests coming back, time and time again.

Tin Star's menu certainly has a Southwestern orientation and incorporates flavors from Texas and beyond, but the principal ingredient in Tin Star's food and in their people is integrity. Though quick preparation and delivery is certainly a focus, at Tin Star, every menu item is made from on-site with high-quality, fresh ingredients.

As a result of this commitment, Tin Star's Guests are passionate about leading-edge menu items with unexpected twists, such as Tempura Shrimp Tacos with fruit pico de gallo and the habit-forming Bleu Cheese Bacon Burger—a cooked-to-order burger topped with bacon, crumbled bleu cheese, chipotle sauce, lettuce, and hand-battered fried onion strings all rolled into a flour tortilla.

Gourmet soft tacos are a mainstay at Tin Star, but a variety of knife-and-fork entrees are crafted to satisfy diverse tastes. Fire-grilled Salmon and Monterey Jack Chicken are artfully presented with sides such as Pico Spinach and Pico Pasta or tasty Demi-glaze Potatoes.

Tin Star is an emerging leader in the "quick-casual" dining category, combining an exciting, comfortable, family friendly atmosphere with a high-quality menu and an innovative limited-service casual format that minimizes waiting time.

At Tin Star, Guests place their order and pay at a service counter, then pick up fire-roasted salsa and fresh chips, made in-house daily, and drinks from self-serve bars. While they're at their table enjoying chips, entrées are delivered. During peak lunch and dinner hours, Tin Star also features a quesadilla sampler for Guests in the order line.

Since the first Tin Star opened as an immediate success near Downtown Dallas, the concept has expanded to include multiple locations throughout the Dallas Metroplex and into Oklahoma.

"If it's not Exceptional, it's Unacceptable."

In today's fast-paced environment, Tin Star is positioned to capture a growing market of time-conscious consumers searching for a great meal at a reasonable price - quick. Professionals and families on the run have come to count on Tin Star to fill that order. The first Tin Star franchisee has emerged from these core Guests.

Tin Star is actively seeking franchisee who agree with Tin Star's commitment to the Guest experience: "If it's not Exceptional, it's Unacceptable." and who are as passionate about the food, vision, and culture as those who already belong to the Tin Star family.

Award-Winning Flavors

The 63 Tacos You Must Eat Before You Die.

Texas Monthly - December 2006

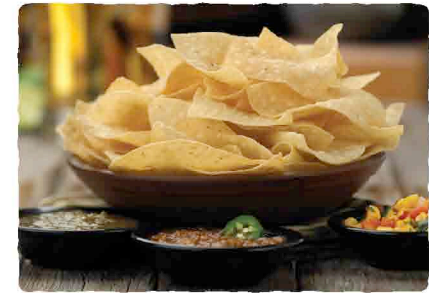

47. TIN STAR - ROASTED PORK TACO
Tin Star made a big splash in Dallas when it opened in 1999, and seven years later this joint continues to be a good place for a quick lunch or an easy dinner after a grueling workday, serious soccer game, or killer yoga class. From a combo lunch-dinner list of fourteen tacos, we find the roasted pork hard to beat. Wrapped inside warm, freshly grilled flour tortillas, the supple shredded meat mingles with a red onion-jalapeño mixture, grated jack cheese, chopped cilantro, and sliced radishes to achieve a sensational balance between tart and soothing. If you like, spoon on some of the accompanying pico de gallo made with corn and sweet, spicy Peppadew pickled peppers.

Recognized in the FAB 50!

Fast Casual Magazine - 2008

Fast Casual Magazine recently published their Top 100 Movers and Shakers of 2008 edition. With more than 600 fast casual concepts in the restaurant industry Tin Star was honored in the Fabulous 50! And movin' up!

Tin Star wins Collin County Community College Salsa Stand-Off!

March - 2009

Tin Star's delicious fire-roasted salsa was recently named Best Salsa by the Collin County Community College's Salsa Stand-Off. Competing against some of the best salsa in Collin County, the award speaks for itself. They pride themselves on the freshest ingredients, so their award winning salsa is made fresh daily.

"I contribute the win to only using the freshest ingredients and our team's passion for our food, vision and culture."
